A ministry of Rotimi & Bose Ladeinde Nov. 2025

A Reason to give Thanks...

Flourishing Cassava farm on one acre of leased land in Iperu, Ogun State, Nigeria. In April 2025, Emmanuel – a devoted church member in Iperu - was granted an interest-free loan to cultivate this land. Emmanuel has a reason to give thanks for the coming harvest. We also give thanks to God who made this possible by your generous gifts. Thank you.

As we look forward to celebrating Thanksgiving in the US, we also take time to reflect on what God has done in Nigeria through IFE Global Outreach and the pastors, missionaries, and Christian volunteers who have worked tirelessly to preach the Gospel and disciple believers in remote towns and villages in Western Nigeria. We have shared with you stories of evangelistic outreach to remote villages where Christian professionals provided medical checkups and education to these people. This month, we want to share with you other areas where we have been active in supporting our faithful volunteers – many of who are struggling to provide food for their families too.

Emmanuel is an example. He is a farmer by profession – like many other men in his local church. It is hard for Banks to loan money to poor farmers or traders, and if they do, the terms and interest make it impossible to pay back. We know these people are hardworking but only need a fair chance with little capital to succeed. So, we have stepped up to help our brothers and sisters with interest-free loans to invest in their small businesses and to focus on ministry work, knowing that God provides for their basic needs. Emmanuel had about one acre of land that was leased to him for farming but needed money to cultivate and grow cassava on the land. We provided a loan of N40,000 in April, and last month he showed us the results – as seen in the picture above. Very soon, it will be harvesting time and lots of blessings from the revenue generated from this farm. We have also given out loans of larger amounts to help a poultry farmer, a palm oil trader and a food seller - just to mention a few of the beneficiaries. They all express their gratitude to God and to you for your obedience in giving towards this ministry. We shall feature more of these success stories in future newsletters.

A special appeal for Christmas Dinner & Gifts Donation

As you celebrate Thanksgiving and Christmas this year, we want you to remember many children and their families in Iperu and Odogbolu too. Unlike families in the US, these families cannot afford to celebrate Christmas with a dinner, and children do not get gifts. The pastors have appealed to us for help in providing a church Christmas dinner for their congregation during this Christmas season. We need special donations from you – if this is to happen. Please consider giving extra donations before December 5, so we can send the money to the 2 churches in Iperu and Odogbolu in time for Christmas. Your special donation would go a long way to brighten the season for children and their parents in these two towns. May the Lord Bless you as you remember these children and their families during this season.
